A GUIDE TO JEWISH PRACTICE: EVERYDAY LIVING
VOLUME ONE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Dedication
Table of Contents
Commentators/Advisory Committee
Preface
Introduction
Everyday Spirituality
  The Many Spiritual Modes
  Offering Blessings
  Mezuzah, Home and Recreation
  Daily Prayer
  Tallit
  Tefillin
  Kipa
  The Torah Scroll and the Synagogue
  Meditation
  Torah Study
  Physical Practices
  Spiritual Direction
  Musar
  Mikvah
  The Arts
  Visiting Eretz Yisrael and Making Aliyah
  Considering Consumption, Appearance and Modesty
  The Jewish Spiritual Way
  Conclusion
Ethics of Speech
  Speech, Autonomy and Community
  Confidentiality, Privacy and the Need to Know
  Truth, Lies and Advertising
  Limiting Speech, Avoiding Gossip, Giving References
  Slander and Malicious Speech
  Offering Reproof
  Embarrassment, Apologies and Reconciliation
  Promises, Oaths and Vows
  Frankness, Boasting and Vulgarity
  Speech and Technology
Family and Sex Ethics
  Family and Sexual Ethics
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Perspectives on Family</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Married/Committed Couples</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Partners as Parents</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Obligations of Parents to Children</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Obligations of Children to Parents</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Separation and Divorce</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interfaith Families</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Changing World of Sexuality</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sexual Pleasure</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prohibited Sexual Partners</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sexual Activity: When, What and with Whom</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual People and Their Relationships</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Monogamy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adultery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jewish Polygamy and Monogamy—A Complex History</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Open Marriage and Polyamory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prostitution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gender Identity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Community, G’milut Hesed and Tikun Olam</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jewish Community in Historical Context</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Obligations of Communities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Obligations to Communities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Obligations to Individuals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pikuah Nefesh/Saving a Life</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bikur Holim/Visiting the Sick</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Meeting Other Needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Caring for Elders</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hakhnasat Orhim/Welcoming Guests</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Aiding Celebrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tza’ar Ba’aley Hayim/Kindness to Animals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Defining Tikun Olam</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social Justice or Social Action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tackling Tikun Olam</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Organizational Ethics and Economic Justice</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Framing the Issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sh’mita and Jubilee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Dignity of Work</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Obligations of Employers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Obligations of Employees</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Competition and Cooperation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Seller’s Obligations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Buyer’s Obligations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transactions Involving Investments</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leasing and Renting</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Agents and Brokers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Special Case of Monopolies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Borrowing and Investing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Advice and Consulting</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Table of Contents

Bankruptcy
Not-For-Profit Organizations
Gifts, Wills, Bequests and Trusts
Pursuing Justice
Taxation
Zoning and Property Rights
Criminal Actions
Self Defense
Returning Lost Objects
Borrowing, Caretaking and Damage
Mediation, Arbitration and Legal Judgments
Stumbling Blocks

Tzedaka
Who benefits from Tzedaka?
Human Dignity
Community as the Locus of Tzedaka
Setting Priorities
Other Kinds of Tzedaka
Making Loans
Jewish and General Giving
Choosing among Organizations
How Much Should a Person Give?
The Status of Pledges
Recognizing Contributors
Teaching Our Children
Solicitation and the Role of Organizations
Conclusion

Bioethics
The Importance of Health
Cultural Differences
Maintaining Health
The Patient-Physician Relationship
Telling the Truth
Curing
Body and Spirit
Pain Management
Euthanasia
Confidentiality
Decision Making on Behalf of a Patient
Contraception
Infertility and Assisted Reproduction
Genetic Testing
Abortion
Enhancement
Complementary Treatment
Organ Donation
Scarce Resources
Psychiatry and Psychotherapy
Autopsy

A Guide to Jewish Practice: Volume One – Everyday Living
Table of Contents
Medical Research
Healthcare Policy
For Further Reading
Kashrut: The Jewish Dietary Laws
Making Decisions
Values-Based Decision Making
Decision-Making Process
First Principles
Understanding the Context
Universal and Particular
Moral Building Blocks
Beliefs and Assumptions
Who Decides?
Negotiating Priorities
Shaping Context
Attitudes, Values and Beliefs Shaping Jewish Practice
Reinvigorating the Practice of Contemporary Jewish Ethics: A Justification for Values-Based Decision Making
Loss of Organic Community
Legitimation and Truth Claims
Search for Objective Truth
Moral Reasoning
Role of Society and Culture
Evolution of Morals
Reaffirming Universal Positions
Problems of Adapting Culture
How Pass on Jewish Ethics?
Values-Based Decision Making
Jewish Decision Making
Controlling Group Dynamics
Competing Forces
Therapy and Happiness
Values-Based Decision Making: Some Second Thoughts—Barbara Hirsh
Need for Leadership Training
Outcomes Assessment
Selective Choice of Values
Basis for Behavior
Imposition of Religious Values
A Reply to Barbara Hirsh
Centrality of Knowledge
Leadership Skills
Mixed Results
Source of Values
The Public Square
Biographies of Contributors
Index